UK Holiday Insurance

When you book your holiday in the UK, you're not just making time for a well deserved break, you're entering into a legally binding contract. What would happen if you fell ill, had an accident, or were otherwise prevented from taking your holiday? You could be faced with a large bill.

Going abroad, many people arrange travel insurance that could cover these costs, but when holidaying in the UK some people overlook insurance, leaving themselves vulnerable to sometimes significant costs.

Every year, Cancellation Plan settles thousands of claims for unforeseen eventualities. So why not cover yourself with Cancellation Plan, so that you can relax and look forward to your holiday in the UK with total peace of mind.

Medical Conditions – Please read carefully:

Please answer these questions in relation to You, Your traveling companions and anyone else upon whose health Your travel plans depend.

- Is anyone travelling or acting against medical advice?
- Is anyone awaiting results of tests or medical investigations?
- Is anyone on a hospital waiting list for treatment?
- Has anyone received a terminal prognosis?
- Is anyone pregnant, where the pregnancy will exceed 26 weeks by the return date of the Trip?
- Has anyone suffered or is suffering from anxiety, stress or depression (unless admitted as an in-patient)?

If you are able to answer 'No' to all of the above, full cover is available under this policy. However, if you answer 'Yes' to any of the above, no cover is available under this policy for the condition(s), which caused you to answer 'Yes'.

Premium Refund Guarantee

If you are not totally satisfied, simply return your policy to TPS (Insurance Admin Services) Limited within 14 days of issue. As long as no claim has been made and your holiday has not commenced, your premium will be refunded in full.

Your Policy Document

You should read the document carefully when you receive it. It gives you full details of what is and what is not covered and the conditions of the cover.

Conditions and Exclusions

Conditions and exclusions will apply to individual sections of your policy, but please read your policy document to see the general exclusions, conditions and warranties which we will apply to the whole of your policy.

Health

Your policy contains restrictions regarding pre-existing medical conditions and concerns the health of the people travelling and of other people upon whose health the trip may depend

Sports and Pastimes

If you are going to take part in dangerous sports or pastimes, call us to check that your policy covers you.

Property Claims

These are based on the value of the goods at the time you lose them and not on a 'new for old' or replacement cost basis

Policy Limits

Most sections of your policy have limits on the amount Insurers will pay under that section. Some sections also include other specific limits, for example, daily limits.

Policy Excesses

Under certain sections of the policy, claims will be subject to an excess. This means that you will be responsible for paying the first part of the claim. Higher excesses apply to claims resulting from medical conditions.

Reasonable Care

You need to take all reasonable care to protect yourself and your property

Complaints

Your insurance policy will outline the complaints procedure which tells you the steps to take if you wish to make a complaint
